

Introduction to laws and ethics

Ethics

A pharmacist respects the covenantal relationship between the patient and pharmacist.

A pharmacist promotes the good of every patient in a caring, compassionate, and confidential manner.

A pharmacist respects the autonomy and dignity of each patient.

A pharmacist acts with honesty and integrity in professional relationships.

A pharmacist maintains professional competence.

A pharmacist respects the values and abilities of colleagues and other health professionals.

A pharmacist serves individual, community, and societal needs.

A pharmacist seeks justice in the distribution of health resources.

Laws are the rules and regulations that are set by the authorities or government and are must to be followed otherwise penalties and punishments may be the consequences Disobeying laws may get you in penalties, fine or punishment but there are no penalties, fine or punishment for not obeying ethics Laws are made by the competent authorities based upon the ethics of the society and other demands

